Campus Overview

Established as Georgia Institute of Technology's first international campus in 1990 in Metz, France, Georgia Tech-Lorraine (GTL) is a highly innovative institution offering year-round programs to undergraduate and graduate students. Undergraduate students of all disciplines study at the campus. Masters and PhD degree programs are offered in Electrical and Computer Engineering, Computer Science, and Mechanical Engineering. GTL is located in the heart of Europe in eastern France along the Luxembourg and German borders, and less than 90 minutes by train from Paris. Integrated into both French and American structures, GTL is an affiliate of the Georgia Institute of Technology incorporated under French Law.

Georgia Tech-Lorraine fosters the flow of new ideas, creates new opportunities, and nurtures the development of global leadership and innovative thinking in its students. Over 6,000 undergraduate, masters, and doctoral students have spent a semester or more on the Metz campus, enriching their education with a global perspective.

The primary facility at Georgia Tech-Lorraine is dedicated to academics and administration. Included in the facility are classrooms, lab space, common areas, and administrative offices. As of 2016, the residential facilities utilized by participating students are considered on-campus.

Georgia Tech-Lorraine faculty and staff have extensive experience with the operation of a broad variety of educational programs within its facilities. As a result, prudent and effective emergency procedures have been developed and, enacted successfully, in close collaboration with local French authorities.

Preparation of the Annual Safety and Security Report

Georgia Tech-Lorraine staff prepare this report, to comply with the Jeanne Clery Disclosure of Campus Security and Crime Statistics Act, in cooperation with the Georgia Tech Police Department (GTPD), the Division of Student Life, Health Promotion, other campus units, and local police. Each entity provides updated information on its educational efforts and programs to meet compliance requirements. This report provides statistics for the previous three years concerning reported Clery Act crimes that occurred on campus, in on-campus housing, or on property owned, leased, or controlled by Georgia Tech-Lorraine.

Email notification of the availability of the Campus Safety Report is sent out electronically to Georgia Tech faculty, staff, and students by the October 1 deadline. Hard copies of the report may be printed from the GTL and GTPD websites. The report is located at:

www.police.gatech.edu

Members of the public may request a paper copy by contacting:

Security and Facility Access

Georgia Tech-Lorraine is equipped with security cameras providing real-time video surveillance and recorded, time-coded surveillance footage from within the building and outside. To signal immediate danger, the building is equipped with danger alarms located on each floor across from the elevator. Once activated, they emit a loud siren and flashing green lights. The French government has issued signs with instructions on what to do if one is in immediate danger. Posted throughout the GTL building, the signs illustrate three steps to take: ESCAPE when possible, or HIDE and ALERT law enforcement by dialing 17 or 112 when it is safe to do so.

Georgia Tech-Lorraine has a full-time staff member in charge of maintaining the GTL building and grounds with a concern for safety and security. Access to the Georgia Tech-Lorraine building is controlled, as is access to the residence halls, which are locked twenty-four hours a day. In an effort to safeguard the GTL community, access to the facilities is restricted to people provided with an electronic key. All electronic keys provided to the students and the faculty are reset each semester. Access granted to the cleaning personnel and providers is restricted to their specific working hours.

In 2017, Georgia Tech-Lorraine installed a perimeter fence, limiting access to campus grounds. A security guard oversees access to the parking lot and GTL building from a security lodge located outside the perimeter fence. Students, faculty, staff, and guests must present proper identification or use their electronic key to enter through this secured access point.

Georgia Tech-Lorraine has implemented these security procedures in collaboration with SECURITAS to enhance safety. A SECURITAS security guard is on duty at GTL when classes are in session from 6:00 AM to 12:00 AM on weekdays and from 2:00 PM to 6:00 PM on Saturday and Sunday. A last patrol is made daily around midnight. These procedures are updated each semester according to the international situation.

Timely Warnings/Clery Act Safety Alerts

Should a situation arise, either inside the Georgia Tech-Lorraine building or in the vicinity, the Director of Georgia Tech-Lorraine will immediately be contacted to evaluate the situation and decide if it is an on-going or continuing threat to the community requiring a Clery Act Safety Alert, also known as a timely warning, to be issued.

The warning will then be issued through any means appropriate, including but not limited to: Facebook group notifications, e-mail lists, in-class announcements, and door-to-door notifications by the RAs in the residential facilities.

Georgia Tech-Lorraine Emergency Notification System (GTLENS)

Georgia Tech-Lorraine uses the Blackboard Connect system to send emergency notifications if a situation arises in the GTL building that poses an imminent threat to the campus community requiring immediate action. GTLENS includes preloaded templates for various situations. As with the Atlanta campus system (GTENS), alerts are sent to all students, faculty, and staff via an online server in the event of an emergency. Administration in Metz will determine when and what notifications need to be sent. Faculty, students, and staff will be enrolled via their email and have the option of adding a phone line to receive voice or text notifications. A GTLENS text message is sent out monthly.

Georgia Tech-Lorraine also uses the Blackboard Connect system to communicate with students immediately following a terrorist attack in France or nearby country and to request that students check in with GTL administration via SMS to the emergency phone, e-mail, or Facebook.

Members of the GTL Security team listed below have the authority to send emergency notifications through GTLENS if there is an immediate threat on campus. They coordinate communication closely for any off-campus emergency situation requiring an alert.

- Georgia Tech-Lorraine Director
- Georgia Tech-Lorraine Deputy Director
- Dean of Students Representative
- Deputy Dean of Students Representative
- Head of Academic Programs
- IT Support

SAFEY App

Prior to their arrival in Metz, students are asked to download the SAFEY app, which provides them with warning alerts and security information based on current location while traveling. SAFEY allows GTL personnel to locate and communicate with students instantly via SMS text messages and calls. The SAFEY app has an SOS function that students can use in case of immediate danger or distress.

Emergency Response and Evacuation Procedures

Major Emergency

In the event of an emergency that requires students to convene in a place other than the Georgia Tech-Lorraine meeting spot, and that does not involve an imminent threat inside one or more of the residences, students will be instructed to gather in the main entrance hall of their respective residences or at the emergency evacuation meeting points just outside the respective residences. Faculty and staff will be given the addresses to meet there as well.

The decision to implement wide evacuation procedures generally rests with the Director of Georgia Tech-Lorraine or Dean Stein. In situations requiring immediate action, public safety responders (police, fire, environmental health and safety) can also order an evacuation. When evaluating the possible evacuation, consideration will be given to the specific threat, its context, and the recommendation of the public safety officials.

Safety Abroad

Prior to leaving for Georgia Tech-Lorraine, students attend pre-departure orientations on all aspects of life in France including, but not limited to, topics such as travel, safety, and health care. Upon their arrival in Metz, students and faculty receive detailed information about local resources, Georgia Tech-Lorraine policies, and emergency evacuation procedures. An emergency evacuation drill is held at the beginning of every semester.

Personal Safety Tips from the GTPD

Although the victim is never at fault, prioritizing one's personal safety is a good idea. By taking a few simple precautions as you go about your daily activities, you can reduce your chances of becoming a crime victim, particularly when the perpetrator is a stranger.

Basic Rules

- Be aware of your surroundings; stay alert and do not get distracted.
- Choose well-lit, busy streets and areas, and walk with a friend.
- Use body language to communicate that you are calm, confident, and know where you are going.
- Make eye contact with those around you and walk tall.
- Trust your instincts. Leave if you feel uncomfortable in a setting.

- To escape danger, cross the street, move to a well-lit area, and quickly go to the nearest house or open facility.
 - Never prop open exterior doors to residence halls or other buildings.
 - Keep room doors locked at all times.
 - Carry your keys at all times.

Publicizing Personal Information

- You are cautioned against publicizing personal information—your name, picture, hobbies, and other detailed personal information—on websites and other easily accessible sources.
- When you publicize personal information, you open the door for this information to be used by individuals to commit identity theft and/or other predatory crimes.

When Walking

- Walk facing traffic.
- Carry a minimal number of belongings.
- Keep emergency money for telephone calls and/or transportation.
- Have your keys in your hand when approaching your vehicle or residence.
- If you feel you are being followed by someone in a vehicle, change your direction and write down the license plate number.

Jogging, Bicycling, and Other Outdoor Activities

- Choose safe, well-populated routes.
- Vary your routine, including the times you perform certain activities and the routes you take to or from such activities.
- Wear light, brightly colored clothing, especially at dusk and at night.
- Avoid jogging, biking, and other outdoor activities alone at night.
- If possible, carry a personal safety alarm.
- Do not wear headphones.

What If It Happens to You?

- Do not resist if the attacker is only after your purse or other valuables.
- Remain calm and do not show signs of panic, anger, or confusion.
- Call the police immediately or the emergency contact. Identify yourself and your location.
- Try to get a good description of your attacker, focusing on attributes such as:
 - Age – Sex – Scars – Race – Height – Tattoos
 - Weight – Complexion – Type of Clothing – Body Build

Property Safety Tips

The most frequently reported crimes are those involving theft of personal or institutional property. The following are some of the most frequent targets of theft reported to both the local police (17) and GTPD in Atlanta (404-894-2500) and some security tips to help you protect your property. Students should contact a GTL staff member in the event that personal property is stolen for support and assistance communicating with local authorities.

Bicycles

- Park your bicycle in areas with a high volume of pedestrian traffic.
- Lock your bicycle with a high quality U-shaped lock.

Computers and Other Office Equipment

- Lock your room every time you leave.
- Keep records of your equipment that include a description of the equipment along with the make, model, and serial number.
- Engrave or apply an owner or departmental identification marking
- Secure computers with cable locks or other security devices.
- Consider purchasing and installing a tracking device on your laptop.

Textbooks and Thefts

- Write your name or owner identification number on several pages inside your books.
- Never leave your book bag or books unattended.

Reporting Crime & Suspicious Behavior

To report a crime in progress or a situation presenting immediate danger, students, faculty and staff are encouraged to report all crimes and public safety incidents or concerns by reaching out to the closest staff member from the list below or calling the local police (17).

In the Georgia Tech-Lorraine building:

- any of the administrative staff members
- the Dean of Students Representative (Paul Voss)

In the Student Residences:

- the Resident Advisors
- the Area Manager of Residence Life (Karen Pierce)
- the residential facility manager

To report non-emergency crimes representing no immediate danger, students and/or faculty members are asked to report any concern to the Dean of Students Representative (Dr. Paul Voss) or staff members in charge of disciplinary issues and student conduct.

Students, faculty and staff can report crimes to any Campus Security Authority (CSA). The Clery Act defines CSA as (1) a member of a campus police department, (2) an individual with responsibility for campus security who is not a part of a police or security department, (3) anyone designated in an institution’s campus security policy as a recipient of reports of criminal offenses from students or employees, and (4) an official of the institution having significant responsibility for student and campus activities.

On the Georgia Tech-Lorraine campus, the following positions meet the definition of a CSA.

- Georgia Tech-Lorraine Director
- Dean of Students Representative; Deputy Dean of Students Representative
- Head of Academic Programs, Academic Office and Campus Life staff
- Area Manager of Residence Life, Resident Advisors
- Security guard

CSAs are responsible for reporting allegations of Clery Act crimes that are reported to them in a timely manner. The person making the report must be asked if he or she consents to be identified. CSA crime reports should include enough detail to properly identify the crime, location of the incident, date and time it occurred, and personally identifying information when available. All CSAs are instructed to transmit these reports to the Dean of Students Representative or Deputy Dean of Students Representative on the Georgia Tech-Lorraine campus. They, in turn, will follow the proper procedure to take action by calling local authorities and/or the Division of Student Life in Atlanta, as well as the emergency contact at OIE and the Undergraduate Program Director in Atlanta.

Important Telephone Numbers

Students and faculty receive a wallet-size card with phone numbers of the Georgia Tech-Lorraine emergency contacts. For immediate assistance, they will thus be able to call the person(s) on call or the French Emergency Response Phone numbers: 17 for immediate police, 18 for fire, 15 for medical emergencies. The National Emergency Number should be called if a student feels any imminent danger threatening him/herself or anybody else.

Police	17
Fire Department	18
SAMU (Medical Emergencies)	15
European Emergency number	112

Other Important Emergency Phone Numbers

As previously mentioned, the phone numbers of all the emergency contacts will be listed on an emergency card distributed to the students and the faculty upon arrival. Students are encouraged to keep this card with them at all times while abroad. There will be a 24-hour contact phone number (Resident Advisor or summer program assistant on call) and several back-up numbers.

Important Staff Numbers

In Metz:

Paul Voss Office: 011 33 387 20 39 20	Karen Pierce: Office: 011 33 354 84 60 94
---	---

In Atlanta:

Catherine Bass Office: 404 894 6364	Mary Alice Allen (OIE) Office: 404 894 7475

Atlanta Campus Police
Non-Emergency: 404 894 2500

The Undergraduate Program Director, Catherine Bass, will provide the Office of International Education and the Division of Student Life with emergency contact information including the 24-hour contact number.

To ensure efficient and reliable emergency communication, the Resident Advisors and the Summer Assistants (during the Summer Program) on call are provided with cellular phones and have access to all the emergency numbers and emergency contacts. The GTL Emergency Contact calls the Area Manager of Residence Life for assistance and based on the severity of the emergency, information will be shared immediately with Dr. Paul Voss and/or the Deputy Director.

If the emergency situation involves the health and welfare of a student, Dean John Stein, Catherine Bass, and Mary Alice Allen from OIE will also be contacted immediately by the Area Manager of Residence Life in Metz.

Missing Persons

Missing Student Policy

If there is reason to believe that a student living in GT-Lorraine residence halls is missing (i.e., when his or her whereabouts are unknown and unexplainable), the person who realizes that the student is missing must contact one of the following: Dean of Students Representative, Deputy Dean of Students Representative, Catherine Bass and/or the Division of Student Life. A procedure will immediately be started to identify the whereabouts of the student. If deemed necessary, the Deputy Dean of Students Representative will go in person to the student's dorm room and, if necessary, will contact the other students of the group via Facebook to request their help in locating the missing student. Should a student remain missing, the Dean of Students and GTPD will be notified by phone at 404-894-2500.

Students participating in the Georgia Tech-Lorraine programs are encouraged to travel in groups over the weekend and to submit information about planned trips.

All contact information collected for the purpose of locating missing students shall remain confidential, will be used only for the purpose specified herein, and will not be disclosed outside of the realm of a missing student investigation.

Alcohol & Drug Policies, Education, & Assistance

Alcoholic Beverages

Georgia Tech-Lorraine has established policies and procedures governing the possession, sale, and consumption of alcoholic beverages on campus and in the residences. All students sign a code of conduct stipulating that they will abide by these rules. A copy of the Student Contract may be obtained from Catherine Bass: catherine.bass@gtl.gatech.edu.

Any use of alcoholic beverages on campus must be in compliance with the Georgia Tech-Lorraine policy. Students of legal drinking age (18) in France may possess and consume alcoholic beverages only in their private spaces while in the residences. Alcohol may not be consumed in common areas or on the grounds of the residences or in the GTL academic facilities.

Illegal Drugs

In accordance with Georgia Tech policies, Georgia Tech-Lorraine prohibits the possession or use, without a valid prescription, of any substance currently classified as a dangerous drug by the Georgia Controlled Substance Act. Any individual breaking the law will be subject to disciplinary action and arrest.

Substance Abuse Education

Georgia Tech-Lorraine is committed to maintaining a campus free of drug and alcohol abuse and assisting all employees and students in finding ways to address such problems. Educational programs addressing these issues are supported and encouraged through a variety of departments on the Georgia Tech main campus. Anyone aware of substance abuse problems with roommates, friends, or coworkers is encouraged to contact the appropriate GTL staff member for help.

Substance Abuse Assistance

Georgia Tech-Lorraine advertises and utilizes services offered on the Atlanta campus. For students with substance abuse problems, assistance is available through the Georgia Tech Counseling Center and the Department of Health Promotion at Stamps Health Services.

The Counseling Center has experienced professional counselors and psychologists to assist students in need. Students are scheduled for individual appointments, and all information is kept strictly confidential.

Health Promotion has a full-time substance abuse prevention coordinator available to provide information individually or in group settings. Students are also welcome to seek help through Stamps Health Services, located at 740 Ferst Drive. For more information, students are encouraged to contact one of the following centers:

Counseling Center 404-894-2575
Health Promotion.....404-894-9980
Stamps Health Services..... 404-894-1420

Georgia Tech faculty and staff may obtain assistance through the Office of Human Resources Employee Assistance Program at 404-894-1225. Counseling and referral services are provided by appointment, and all information is kept strictly confidential. The Faculty and Staff Assistance Program also offers training and educational programs regarding drug and alcohol awareness.

Applicable Local Laws

Students are expected to adhere to local laws in addition to the policies of the Institute. It is the responsibility of every student to assume the risks associated with alcohol/drug use and abuse.

Sexual Assault, Dating or Domestic Violence, Stalking Prevention and Response

In correlation with Georgia Tech, Georgia Tech-Lorraine is actively engaged in preventing and responding to sexual assault, dating or domestic violence, and stalking. These crimes are not tolerated on our campus and are a violation of the Student Code of Conduct, Institute policy, and state law.

VOICE (Sexual Violence Prevention and Advocacy Initiative) is a Georgia Tech main campus initiative founded on the premise that everyone has the right to live and learn at Georgia Tech, free of violence or the threat of violence. This initiative seeks to create a campus culture that promotes respect, communication, and equity among the Georgia Tech community. The VOICE initiative is led by staff in Health Promotion and involves students, faculty, and staff from across the campus community, including GTPD, Stamps Health Services, the Department of Housing, Residence Life, Greek Life, the Counseling Center, the Division of Student Life, Student Government, the Athletic Association, and others. More information can be found at www.voice.gatech.edu.

Facts about Sexual Assault, Dating, or Domestic Violence, and Stalking

- Most survivors of sexual assault are on a first-name basis with the perpetrator. On college campuses, only about 10 percent of sexual assaults are committed by a stranger.
- Consent for sexual activity is the presence of a YES, not the absence of a NO. If you aren't sure if your partner is giving consent, ask in clear terms.
- Sexual violence, including sexual assault and dating or domestic violence, are more commonly perpetrated by men against women. However, the majority of men are not perpetrators, and people of all genders and sexual orientations can be victimized.
- Alcohol is involved in the majority of cases of sexual assault on college campuses. In fact, sexual assaults often occur when alcohol is used coercively to incapacitate the victim. Know your limits when it comes to alcohol, and respect others' limits.
- Dating or domestic violence is not always physical, and there are often warning signs of abuse that escalate to physical violence. If you see warning signs in your relationship or that of a friend, seek immediate support and consider creating a safety plan.
- Stalking can take many forms and is not always committed by a stranger. In fact, ex-boyfriends or girlfriends often stalk after the relationship has ended.

Strategies for Preventing Perpetration:

- Everyone has the right to have boundaries in a relationship, sexual or otherwise. Understand and respect your partner's limits.
- Know your own sexual limits.
- Men who use callous sexual language are more likely to be perpetrators of sexual assault. When you hear someone talking about women or sex in a derogatory way, speak up!
- Learn more about how different people communicate differently about sexual activity. A lack of communication or mixed signals is never an excuse for sexual assault.
- Seek information to learn more about what survivors of sexual violence go through and how you can support them.
- No matter your gender, if you are initiating sexual activity, you are responsible for seeking and receiving clear consent. People who are impaired or incapacitated by alcohol or drugs cannot give consent.

Bystander Intervention

Intervening can be difficult, but every person on campus, whether a student, staff, or faculty member, has a role in preventing or responding to violence before, during, or after it happens. It can be as simple as see something, say something.

Bystander Intervention Tips:

- Sexual violence occurs when a culture tolerates these behaviors, and it starts with rape jokes or sexist language. If you hear it, remember that you don't have to laugh or participate.
- If you witness a potentially sexually violent situation, step in. Intervening can be direct or indirect – the important thing is that you do something. If you don't feel comfortable addressing the potential perpetrator directly, consider causing a distraction or getting someone else to help you. Even if you don't know the people involved, you can still help. If it is happening to a member of the Georgia Tech community, it's your business.
- Being an active bystander might mean helping after an assault occurs. Learn more about options available to survivors, and offer help and support if someone you know experiences any form of sexual violence. Believe the survivor and be supportive of their choices.

Primary Prevention Programs Available

The VOICE initiative takes a comprehensive approach to sexual violence prevention and awareness programming on the Georgia Tech main campus. Yearly programming includes a VOICE training series, awareness events and campaigns, guest speakers, classroom and student organization presentations, and workshops for staff and faculty. All new students and employees on the Georgia Tech campus receive mandatory training on the identification and prevention of sexual violence, including sexual assault, dating violence, and stalking.

Students

The VOICE initiative's sexual violence prevention programs contain: definitions of consent, sexual assault, dating/domestic violence, and stalking; myths related to sexual violence on campus; information on the Georgia Tech Student Sexual Misconduct Policy; safe and positive options for bystander intervention; sexual violence prevention strategies; and ways to support a survivor. VOICE serves thousands of students each year with trainings, speakers, and awareness campaigns. As part of its comprehensive health programming, Georgia Tech requires first-year undergraduate and incoming transfer students to complete AlcoholEdu and Haven: Understanding Sexual Assault; all first-year graduate students are expected to complete Haven. Students can visit www.voice.gatech.edu to learn more about Georgia Tech's sexual violence prevention and response activities, or email voice@gatech.edu for more information.

Faculty and Staff

Pursuant to its Policy of Non-Discrimination and Affirmative Action and Anti-Harassment Policy, Georgia Tech prohibits its faculty and staff members from engaging in discriminatory conduct on the basis of gender, including sexual harassment and sexual misconduct. This policy is in effect at Georgia Tech-Lorraine.

The Refrain, Reject, Report learning solution was designed and implemented to educate Georgia Tech faculty and staff on their rights and responsibilities regarding sexual harassment, discrimination, and misconduct, as well as how to support students experiencing sexual violence. The solution affirms Georgia Tech's commitment to effectively responding to and ultimately preventing these problems on campus by equipping the community with practical skills to refrain from, reject, and report any form of inappropriate sexual behavior. For more information on training opportunities and employee responsibilities regarding sexual harassment, sexual assault, dating or domestic violence, and stalking, visit www.refrainrejectreport.gatech.edu

Resources on preventing sexual violence, dating/domestic violence, and stalking are available to faculty and staff at www.voice.gatech.edu. The VOICE team can be contacted at voice@gatech.edu for training opportunities.

Crisis Response Services Available

The Georgia Tech community has a wide range of services available to support and help survivors of sexual assault, dating or domestic violence, and stalking. Regardless of where an offense occurred, if a Georgia Tech student or employee reports that she or he is a victim-survivor of sexual assault, dating or domestic violence, or stalking, the victim is provided with a written explanation of her or his rights and options.

In addition to receiving immediate assistance from the Deputy Dean of Students Representative by calling the emergency phone number, students at Georgia Tech-Lorraine are advised to call the European Emergency number (112).

Options for Seeking Medical Attention

If an assault has just occurred, getting medical attention within the first 72 hours is important for medical reasons, as well as to collect evidence for criminal proof and/or obtaining a protection order.

Georgia Tech-Lorraine has a list of local hospitals and English-speaking doctors with whom they work, and will make arrangements for medical attention and transport of survivors and will help with translation services as needed. Additionally, a staff member of Georgia Tech-Lorraine will accompany the student to the hospital, if the incident happened locally, or can be dispatched to a hospital outside of Metz, if the student makes such a request or if GTL or Georgia Tech feels that this would be helpful to the survivor. Survivors have the option to seek medical attention without having a rape kit conducted. Survivors may seek medical attention for injuries, STI screening, emergency contraception, and pregnancy testing.

If it is not possible to seek medical care within the 72- hour window, it is still important to seek medical attention as soon as possible.

Counseling Services

The Georgia Tech Counseling Center is committed to assisting students who have experienced sexual violence of any form, including sexual assault, dating or domestic violence, and stalking. Students at Georgia Tech-Lorraine have the option of using the confidential services at the Georgia Tech Counseling Center through appointments via Skype. Georgia Tech-Lorraine staff aid students in scheduling an appointment, on a per need basis. An English-speaking therapist approved by Cultural Insurance Services International (CISI) is also available for therapeutic services via Skype.

The Georgia Tech Counseling Center has a twenty-four-hour emergency consultation service. Students may contact an on-call counselor through GTPD at 404-894-2500. You do not have to file a police report for counseling assistance. Aftercare in the form of counseling, advocacy, and follow-up is also available from national hotlines such as RAINN (Rape, Abuse, and Incest National Network) or the National Domestic Violence Hotline.

Advocate Services

In addition to assistance from the Georgia Tech Counseling Center, Health Promotion has two full-time victim-survivor advocates on staff who can provide immediate and ongoing support to a victim-survivor as they cope with the experience of sexual violence, including information on reporting options, regardless of when the violence occurred. An on-call advocate is available for support 24/7 and can be reached after hours through GTPD (404-894-2500). Advocates can assist victim-survivors of any gender in identifying resources to cope with the aftermath of sexual violence.

Reporting Options for Sexual Violence

For Georgia Tech students, faculty, and staff who experience sexual violence, including sexual assault, dating or domestic violence, stalking, or sexual harassment, there are several basic reporting options, depending on whether the victim-survivor wishes to file a confidential report, pursue an Institute investigation, or seek a criminal investigation with the assistance of GTPD. When a report is received by one of these entities, the victim-survivor receives written notice of their rights and options, and, where appropriate, orders of protection, no-contact orders, and restraining orders. A victim also has the right to choose not to file any report. In that case, a student can still receive support services from the Counseling Center or Health Promotion, and a faculty or staff member can still receive support services from the Employee Assistance Program.

To File a Confidential Report

Student victims may file a confidential report with the victim-survivor advocates in Health Promotion, Campus Security Authorities in the Office of the Dean of Students, Women's Resource Center, or the Department of Housing. In this case, general information is collected for campus safety statistics, and the case is referred to the Title IX Coordinator for investigation, to the extent possible given the information provided.

If information is provided that would identify the accused individual, the Title IX Coordinator will endeavor to use that information to investigate the case. Examples of identifying information include, but are not limited to: name, email account, apartment or room number, job title (e.g., TA for particular class), and/or a specific description.

Faculty and staff who experience sexual violence may file a confidential report through EthicsPoint (a neutral third-party host) by completing an online form or by calling 1-866-294-5565 and having EthicsPoint transcribe the information and send it to the Institute.

To Pursue an Institute Investigation

If the accused individual is a student, the victim may report the violation in writing or in person to the Title IX Coordinator to begin the investigation.

To prepare for the official conduct process, students are encouraged to meet with a victim-survivor advocate prior to reporting. A victim-survivor advocate will share information about the student's rights, explain the reporting and investigation process, and share additional resources.

To Pursue an Office of Human Resources Investigation

If the accused individual is a faculty or staff member, the Georgia Tech Student Sexual Misconduct Policy does not apply. However, the victim may file a report with Health Promotion to be investigated by the Office of Human Resources.

To Pursue a Criminal Investigation

All victims may file a report with local police and/or GTPD for a criminal investigation, which may be sought in conjunction with an Institute investigation. Georgia Tech will honor all protection and no-contact orders issued by a criminal court as directed by law.

Reports to GTPD will be shared with the Title IX Coordinator, and will be investigated for violation of policy or other violations of the Student Code of Conduct.

A victim-survivor advocate can assist with reporting to GTPD or local police.

Sexual Misconduct Disciplinary Procedures

Students

All investigations concerning sexual violence by a Georgia Tech student will be prompt, fair, and impartial. The standard of proof utilized in these cases is preponderance of the evidence. Preponderance of the evidence, as an evidentiary standard, means that it is more likely than not the alleged violation of policy occurred. All Student Sexual Misconduct Policy investigation, resolution, and appeal processes are carried out by those who have received annual training on issues related to sexual assault, dating or domestic violence, and stalking, and how to conduct a sexual misconduct investigation, resolution, and appeal process that protects the safety of victims, maintains fairness/impartiality for accused individuals, and promotes student accountability.

Potential violations or individuals reported to GTPD will be investigated per the procedures found in the Student Sexual Misconduct Policy and the Institute's Student Code of Conduct. Due process rights of the victim and accused individual will be observed. If it is determined that a violation of policy has occurred, disciplinary action may be taken, up to and including the expulsion of the offender. The severity of any disciplinary action will depend on the frequency or severity of the offense and the history of past misconduct by the accused. For more information, see the Student Sexual Misconduct Policy at:

www.policylibrary.gatech.edu/student-sexual-harassment-misconduct-policy

No-Contact Order

Upon receipt of a report of student sexual misconduct, the Office of Student Integrity may issue a no-contact order between the parties involved in the case. The no-contact order prohibits communication between/among the parties, including but not limited to: contact by telephone, email, hand-written note, instant messaging, and text messaging, online postings/message boards, through a third person, or in person. This includes any email or message accounts that are affiliated with the parties' identities. If any party violates the no-contact order, the Office of Student Integrity may pursue additional disciplinary action.

In certain circumstances, the Dean of Students may also impose an interim suspension in accordance with the Code of Conduct.

Student Rights:

- To have any and all acts of sexual misconduct handled with seriousness, dignity, and respect.
- To receive information outlining the student procedures regarding sexual misconduct.
- To receive information about options to report sexual misconduct (i.e., campus and/or local police, the Office of Student Integrity, and the confidential reporting form) and to receive assistance from an advocate if requested.
- To receive a prompt, fair, and impartial investigation and resolution.
- To have the investigation, resolution, and appeal process be carried out by those who have received annual training on issues related to sexual assault, dating or domestic violence, and stalking, and how to conduct a sexual misconduct investigation, resolution, and appeal process that protects the safety of victims, maintains fairness/impartiality for accused individuals, and promotes student accountability.
- To be informed of the date and location of any meetings involved in the investigation and resolution process.
- To seek information or updates from the Office of Student Integrity at any point throughout the investigation and resolution process.
- To have an advisor of one's choice present during any meetings and proceedings involved in the investigation and resolution process.
- To be informed in writing of any policies alleged to have been violated in association with the incident.
- To have the opportunity to provide information regarding his or her involvement in the allegation.
- To be informed of the outcome in writing of any campus disciplinary proceeding.

- To be notified of options and offered assistance in changing academic, living, transportation, and working situations, if requested – as long as the changes are reasonably available.
- To receive support services (i.e., campus counseling, medical assistance).
- To not to have mediation imposed as a resolution process.
- To appeal the outcome in accordance with the applicable provisions of the Student Sexual Misconduct Policy.
- To be informed in writing of any change to the outcome due to appeal, and when the outcome becomes final.

Faculty and Staff

All investigations concerning sexual misconduct by a Georgia Tech faculty or staff member will be prompt, fair, and impartial, and shall be conducted by officials who receive annual training on issues related to sexual harassment, sexual assault, dating or domestic violence, and stalking, and how to conduct a sexual misconduct investigation process that protects the safety of victims, maintains fairness/impartiality for accused individuals, and promotes employee accountability.

Faculty or staff investigation procedures will determine findings of fact using the preponderance of the evidence standard, which means that it is more likely than not that a violation of Georgia Tech policy has occurred. If it is determined that a violation of policy has occurred, disciplinary action may be taken, up to and including termination of employment. The severity of any disciplinary action will depend on the frequency or severity of the offense and the history of past misconduct by the employee.

Confidentiality

Although the goal is to limit the number of individuals who may learn about an allegation or investigation of sexual misconduct, Georgia Tech cannot guarantee confidentiality in all cases. Georgia Tech, however, will make reasonable and appropriate efforts to preserve the victim's and accused individual's privacy and to protect the confidentiality of information. To the extent permissible by law, Georgia Tech shall take reasonable steps to avoid inclusion of identifying information about a victim-survivor or accused individual from publicly available records.

Retaliation

Georgia Tech does not tolerate retaliation against anyone who makes a complaint of sexual misconduct, whether reported to Georgia Tech or an external agency, or against anyone who exercises their rights or responsibilities under Georgia Tech's policies. If any party involved in a sexual misconduct incident or conduct process retaliates in any way, she or he may be subject to additional disciplinary action. For more information, see the Georgia Tech Anti-Harassment Policy at: www.policylibrary.gatech.edu/employment/anti-harassment-policy

Sex Offender Registry

France does not maintain a sex offender registry. Information about an individual's past criminal history is not made available to the public.

Annual Student Housing Fire Safety Report

Housing Fire Safety Policies and Procedures

Student housing in Metz-Technopôle is used by Georgia Tech-Lorraine by agreement with the respective organizations. Per the Clery Handbook on-campus definition (34 CFR 668.46(a)), Georgia Tech-Lorraine controls these residences; they are reasonably contiguous to the main building and they directly support the institution's educational purpose by providing students with housing.

Students on the Georgia Tech-Lorraine campus are expected to follow institute policies for fire safety. The housing facilities have fire alarm systems equipped with smoke detection, but they do not have automatic fire suppression systems. Fire evacuation drills are performed on a different schedule than the main campus. Direction on evacuation procedures are provided by building management, not Georgia Tech-Lorraine. Evacuation maps are posted in resident hallways. In case of fire, students are instructed to call the Metz Fire Department by dialing 18.
