To the Georgia Tech Community

I am pleased to introduce the Georgia Institute of Technology Annual Security and Safety Report 2018, part of Georgia Tech's ongoing effort to inform the community – students, parents, faculty, staff, and guests – about campus safety. This report was prepared in collaboration with the Georgia Tech Police Department, Office of Student Integrity, Women's Resource Center, Health & Well-Being, Department of Housing, and the Georgia Tech Athletic Association as well as other key authorities including the Atlanta Police Department. The 2018 Annual Security and Fire Safety Report complies with the requirements of the Jeanne Clery Disclosure of Campus Security Policy and Campus Crime Statistics Act.

Safety is paramount at Georgia Tech, and we are committed to the prevention of violence and the promotion of wellness for our students, faculty, and staff. Our teams implement an integrated approach including prevention initiatives, ongoing training, strategic use of technology and expertise, and swift event response. Our many collaborations and partnerships, both on and off campus, enable us to respond to existing and developing safety needs with creative, agile solutions.

Georgia Tech is required by the Department of Education to issue safety alerts when an ongoing threat is within our campus boundaries. However, to keep the community better informed about crime in nearby areas, we voluntarily include areas off-campus that are most frequented by students. This is just one example of our pledge to educate and protect our community.

Georgia Tech takes great pride in our commitment to campus safety. I encourage you to read on to learn more about the critical partnerships that make Georgia Tech a safe place to learn, work, live, and play.

Regards,

James G. Fortner

Interim Executive Vice President for Administration and Finance

About the Georgia Tech Police Department (GTPD)

The Georgia Tech Police Department (GTPD) has more than 80 sworn police officer positions and is accredited by the Commission on Accreditation for Law Enforcement Agencies. Primarily responsible for protecting the life and property of people on the Georgia Tech campus, GTPD officers patrol the campus around the clock and perform a full range of public safety services, including:

- » Providing first response to emergencies
- » Enforcing laws and Institute regulations
- » Investigating criminal incidents and traffic accidents
- » Reporting crimes and traffic accidents
- » Conducting crime awareness and prevention programs

When a criminal act is reported, GTPD will investigate the incident and make every reasonable effort to identify the offender(s). Depending upon the wishes of the victim, the nature of the offense, and the evidence gathered, the case could be presented for prosecution in the criminal courts of Georgia. If a member of the Georgia Tech community is identified as an offender in an incident, GTPD will also notify the appropriate Institute personnel so that administrative disciplinary action may be taken.

Working Relationship with Local, State, and Federal Law Enforcement Agencies

GTPD maintains a cooperative relationship with the Atlanta Police Department. This encompasses inter-operative radio capability, training programs, special events coordination, and investigation of serious incidents. The GTPD participates in Extraterritorial Assistance Memorandums of Understanding with the Atlanta Police Department, the Fulton County Sheriff's Office, and the Metropolitan Atlanta Rapid Transit Authority (MARTA) Police Department that authorize police officers and supervisors of these agencies to request mutual aid for incidents based on a reasonable belief that such aid will enhance the public's safety and/or officer safety and efficiency.

Additionally, GTPD works closely with other city, county, state, and federal law enforcement agencies throughout Georgia. A memorandum of understanding is in place between GTPD and the Georgia Bureau of Investigation (GBI) to allow information sharing through the Georgia Information Sharing and Analysis Center, which facilitates effective collaboration on the investigation of criminal offenses. As a state investigative agency, the GBI routinely assists other state agencies, including GTPD, with investigations that require specific expertise or additional resources. GTPD maintains a liaison with the FBI and the Joint Terrorism Task Force and routinely consults with them about events – especially large gatherings such as sporting events – that may affect the safety and security of the campus community.

Crimes Involving Student Organizations at Off-Campus Locations

The Institute does not operate off-campus housing or student organization facilities, but some graduate and undergraduate students live in neighborhoods immediately surrounding the campus. When a Georgia Tech student is involved in an off-campus offense, GTPD may assist with the investigation in cooperation with local, state, or federal law enforcement. GTPD routinely works and communicates with the Atlanta Police Department on serious incidents occurring in the immediate neighborhood and businesses surrounding campus. While the Atlanta Police Department has primary jurisdiction in all areas off campus, GTPD officers can and do respond to student-related incidents that occur in close proximity to campus. GTPD officers have direct radio communication with the city police and fire department to facilitate rapid response in emergency situations.

Law Enforcement Training

GTPD sworn officers are professionally trained and certified in accordance with the Georgia Peace Officer Standards and Training Council, and attend continuing in-service training programs to further develop their knowledge and skills.

Authority

State law (O.C.G.A. 20-3-72) gives GTPD officers the authority to make arrests for crimes committed upon any property under the jurisdiction of the Board of Regents of the University System of Georgia and for offenses committed upon any public or private property within 500 yards of any property under the jurisdiction of the Board of Regents.

» Location

The GTPD headquarters is located at 879 Hemphill Avenue until early 2019, when it will move to 965 Hemphill Avenue. GTPD is staffed 24 hours a day, year-round, including weekends, holidays, and semester breaks.

Social Media Presence

The GTPD has a visible and proactive presence on multiple social media platforms to reach the greatest number of students, faculty, and staff. In addition to security notices, photographs, and safety marketing campaigns, safety-oriented videos are often strategically posted.

Preparation of the Annual Safety and Security Report

The Georgia Tech Clery Committee prepares this report, to comply with the Jeanne Clery Disclosure of Campus Security and Crime Statistics Act, using information maintained by GTPD and information provided by other Georgia Tech offices such as the Office of Student Integrity, Women's Resource Center, Health Initiatives, Housing and Residence Life, Athletics, other Campus Security Authorities, and the Atlanta Police Department. Each of these offices provides updated policy information and/or crime data. This report provides statistics for the previous three years concerning reported Clery Act crimes that occurred on campus; in certain off-campus buildings; or on property owned, leased, or controlled by Georgia Tech. This report also includes institutional policies concerning campus security, such as policies regarding sexual assault, alcohol, and other drugs.

Georgia Tech distributes a notice of the availability of this Annual Safety and Security Report by October 1 of each year to every member of the Georgia Tech community. Members of the public may obtain a paper copy of this report by contacting GTPD at 404.894.2500 or by visiting www.police.gatech.edu/documents/safetyreport.pdf

All members of the Georgia Tech community, including all students, faculty, staff, and their guests, are encouraged to report all crimes and other public safety concerns to the GTPD in a timely manner.

Reporting Crimes and Other Emergencies

Reporting to the GTPD

All members of the Georgia Tech community, including students, faculty, staff, and guests, are encouraged to report all crimes and other public safety concerns to the GTPD in a timely manner. Like any large community, Georgia Tech experiences accidents, injuries, crimes, and other emergencies and encourages prompt reporting of these incidents. To report such incidents, potential criminal actions, or suspicious behavior, call 911 from a campus phone or notify the GTPD at 404.894.2500 or 404.894.GTPD. Dispatchers are available at these respective telephone numbers at all times. An officer will be dispatched to the scene and, if necessary, additional emergency assistance will be summoned. GTPD reports involving students are forwarded to the Office of the Vice President for Student Life and Dean of Students for review and for potential action by the Office of Student Integrity. GTPD will conduct an investigation when it is deemed appropriate. Additional information obtained in the investigation will also be forwarded to the Office of Student Integrity.

Reporting to Other Campus Security Authorities

All members of the Georgia Tech community, including students, faculty, staff, and guests, may also report specific crimes to any Campus Security Authority (CSA). These crimes, as defined by the Jeanne Clery Disclosure of Campus Security Policy and Campus Crime Statistics Act (Clery Act), include: murder, non-negligent manslaughter, negligent manslaughter, rape, fondling, incest, statutory rape, robbery, aggravated assault, burglary, motor vehicle theft, arson (limited to investigated cases determined by law enforcement authorities to be arson), domestic violence, dating violence, and stalking. The Clery Act defines a CSA broadly as (i) a member of a campus police department; (ii) any individuals who have responsibility for campus security, but who do not constitute a police or security department (such as gate attendants); (iii) any persons designated in an institution's campus security policy as a recipient of reports of criminal offenses from students or employees; and (iv) an official of an institution having significant responsibility for student and campus activities.

The following list denotes the positions at Georgia Tech that meet the definition of a CSA. This list is intended to be comprehensive, but certain positions may not be specifically listed.

- » All sworn members of the GTPD
- » All academic deans, associate deans, and assistant deans
- » All deans and directors, associate deans and directors, and assistant deans and directors in the Office of the Vice President for Student Life and Dean of Students
- » The Title IX coordinator and all deputy coordinators
- » Campus victim-survivor advocates
- » The vice president, associate vice president, executive directors, and assistant director of the organizational area of Institute Diversity
- » All directors, associate directors, resident advisors, and peer leaders of the organizational area of Residence Life
- » All directors and associate directors of the organizational area of the Student Center
- » The associate vice president, senior directors, and directors of the organizational area of Georgia Tech Human Resources
- » All directors, associate directors, and head coaches in the Athletic Association

- » The director of Stamps Health Services
- » All advisors to student clubs and organizations

If a crime victim reports a Clery Act crime to a CSA (other than GTPD) but does not wish to or otherwise cannot report to the police, the CSA will promptly report the crime to GTPD using the online form found at police.gatech.edu/csa/.

If the victim wishes to remain anonymous, the CSA can report the crime using the online form without disclosing the victim's personally identifying information. Accurate reporting of the crime is important to the mission of compiling statistics required by the Clery Act, and timely reporting enables any necessary alerts to be distributed to the campus community.

Confidential Reporting

For crimes that are reported to GTPD, confidentiality is limited to that provided by law. Because police reports are public records under state law, GTPD cannot hold reports of crime in confidence. Confidential reporting, for purposes of inclusion in the annual disclosure of crime statistics, can be made to Campus Security Authorities (as identified above) – excluding sworn members of the GTPD. Accurate and prompt reporting will facilitate timely initiation of warnings and other appropriate emergency response procedures, and will also help ensure the accuracy of crime statistics compiled in compliance with the Clery Act.

Persons Exempt from Reporting Clery Reportable Crimes

Pastoral counselors and professional counselors, as defined below, when acting as such, are not considered to be Campus Security Authorities and are not required to report crimes. The Institute encourages them, if and when they deem it appropriate, to inform persons being counseled of the procedures to report crimes on a voluntary basis for inclusion in the annual crime statistics. A pastoral counselor is an employee of the Institute who is associated with a religious order or denomination, who is recognized by that religious order or denomination as someone who provides confidential counseling, and who is functioning within the scope of that recognition. A professional counselor is an employee of the Institute whose official responsibilities include providing psychological counseling and who is functioning within the scope of his or her license or certification.

Suspected Child Abuse Reporting

Georgia law requires all Institute employees and volunteers who, in the course of their duties, suspect that a child has been abused on or off campus to report that abuse immediately to the GTPD in person or by phone at 404.894.2500 or 404.894.GTPD. Employees and volunteers must also report suspected child abuse to their supervisor, program director, or a Georgia Tech official as soon as possible. ## Personal Safety Tips

Although the victim is never at fault, taking a few simple precautions as you go about your daily activities can reduce your chances of becoming a crime victim.

Basic Rules

- » Be aware of your surroundings. Stay alert and do not get distracted.
- » Choose well-lit, busy streets and areas, and walk with a friend.
- » Know where the police station is and which buildings are open late.
- » Know where campus emergency telephones are located.
- » Use body language to communicate that you are calm, confident, and know where you are going.
- » Make eye contact with those around you.
- » Trust your instincts. Leave if you feel uncomfortable in a setting.
- » To escape danger, cross the street, move to a well-lit area, and quickly go to the nearest populated facility.
- » Never prop open exterior doors to residence halls or other buildings.
- » Keep room doors locked at all times.
- » Carry your keys at all times.

Publicizing Personal Information

- » Be careful about publicizing personal information – your name, picture, hobbies, and other identifiable details – on websites and other easily accessible sources.
- » Be aware that personal information posted on social media may open the door for this information to be used by individuals to commit identity theft or other predatory crimes.

When Walking

- » Walk facing traffic.
- » Carry a minimal number of belongings.
- » Keep emergency money for transportation in a separate location such as a pocket.
- » Have your keys in your hand when approaching your vehicle or residence.
- » If you feel you are being followed by someone in a vehicle, change your direction and write down the license plate number.

In a Vehicle

- » Keep your vehicle in good running condition and filled with fuel.
- » Plan your route in advance.
- » Keep your vehicle doors locked at all times.
- » Park in well-lit areas.
- » Never pick up strangers.
- » Do not stop to help motorists. Instead, signal that you will call for help.
- » If you are being followed, go to the nearest police or fire station, or an open facility. If no safe areas are near, honk the horn repeatedly and turn on your emergency flashers. Call police when it is safe to do so.

Jogging, Bicycling, and Other Outdoor Activities

- » Choose safe, well-populated routes.
- » Vary your routine, including the times you perform certain activities and the routes you take to or from such activities.
- » Wear light, brightly colored clothing, especially at dusk and at night.
- » Avoid jogging, biking, and other outdoor activities alone at night.
- » If possible, carry a personal safety alarm.
- » Do not wear headphones that cancel other sounds.

What If It Happens to You?

- » Do not resist if an attacker is only after your belongings or other valuables. Do not escalate a property crime into a violent confrontation.

- » Remain calm and do not show signs of panic, anger, or confusion.
- » Call the police immediately. Identify yourself and your location.
- » Try to get a good description of your attacker, focusing on identifiable attributes such as:
  - Age
  - Sex
  - Scars
  - Race
  - Height
  - Tattoos
  - Weight
  - Complexion
  - Type of clothing
  - Body build

Property Safety Tips

The most frequently reported crimes are those involving theft of personal or institutional property. The following are some of the most commonly reported to the GTPD, along with security tips to help you protect your property.

Vehicles

- » Do not leave your keys inside your vehicle, and always lock your vehicle.
- » Remove all valuables from your vehicle, including GPS devices and their mounts, clothing, electronic devices and their chargers, purses, wallets, and change. Store valuables out of sight in your trunk if they must remain in your vehicle.
- » Close all windows, and make sure the trunk and all doors are secured.
- » Keep your vehicle's tag number, VIN [vehicle identification number], and a complete description of your vehicle in your wallet or a safe place at your residence.
- » Park in well-lit, busy areas, and do not leave your vehicle in unattended lots for long periods of time.
- » Install a security device, such as a steering column lock or a cut-off switch that interrupts fuel or ignition systems.
- » Secure your vehicle's license plate with tamper-proof bolts.

Bicycles

- » Park your bicycle in areas with a high volume of pedestrian traffic.
- » Lock your bicycle with a high-quality U-shaped lock.
- » Engrave your bicycle with an owner identification number. This service is free at GTPD.
- » Register your bicycle for free with the GTPD. Bicycles can be registered at www.police.gatech.edu/services. A record will be made of the make, model, manufacturer's serial number, and the owner identification number, and you will receive a registration sticker to place on your bicycle.

Computers and Other Office Equipment

- » Lock your room or office every time you leave.
- » Keep records that include a description of the equipment along with the make, model, and manufacturer's serial number.
- » Engrave or apply an owner or departmental identification marking where possible. Engraving is a free service at GTPD.
- » Secure computers with cable locks or other security devices.
- » Install burglar alarms capable of being monitored by the GTPD in computer labs, offices, or storage areas that contain large quantities of valuable office or research equipment.
- » Consider purchasing and installing a tracking device on your laptop.

Textbooks and Theft

- » Write your name or owner identification number on several pages inside your books.
- » Never leave your book bag or books unattended, especially while at the library, in coffee shops, dining halls, classrooms, and lounge areas, or at the Campus Recreation Center.

- » While lockers are safe for storing clothes, they can be broken into. Do not store valuable items in a locker without using a lock.

Weapons on Campus

Georgia law regarding possession of weapons on campus (O.C.G.A. § 16-11-127.1) was changed, effective July 1, 2017, and now allows weapons license holders to carry handguns on property owned or leased by public colleges and universities. The law allows for the carrying of handguns only, and the handgun must be concealed. The statute defines concealed as “carried in such a fashion that does not actively solicit the attention of others and is not prominently, openly, and intentionally displayed except for the purposes of defense of self or others.” Therefore, a license holder may carry a handgun while it is substantially (but not necessarily completely) covered by an article of clothing, or contained within a bag that he or she is carrying, or in another similar manner that keeps the weapon under the control of the license holder and generally out of the view of others.

There are several restrictions on the carrying of handguns on campus. License holders and others may not carry or possess handguns in student housing facilities (including fraternities and sororities housed in buildings or on land owned or leased by a University System institution); buildings or property used for intercollegiate sporting events; spaces utilized for daycare or preschool functions; offices for staff, faculty, or administration; spaces being used for classes in which high school students are enrolled; and spaces being used for disciplinary proceedings of any kind.

Georgia law, under the same code section, also allows the carrying of electroshock weapons on campus. Electroshock weapons are devices commonly referred to as tasers or stun guns. Per O.C.G.A. 16-11-127.1(b)(19), “Any person who is 18 years of age or older or currently enrolled in classes on the campus in question and carrying, possessing, or having under such person’s control an electroshock weapon while in or on any building or real property owned by or leased to such public technical school, vocational school, college or university or other public institution of postsecondary education; provided, however, that, if such person makes use of such electroshock weapon, such use shall be in defense of self or others. The exemption under this paragraph shall apply only to such person in regard to such electroshock weapon. As used in this paragraph, the term “electroshock weapon” means any commercially available device that is powered by electrical charging units and designed exclusively to be capable of incapacitating a person by electrical charge, including, but not limited to, a stun gun or taser as defined in subsection (a) of Code Section 16-11-106.”

Other than the exceptions listed above, it is against Georgia state law to possess any other weapon on campus. Georgia law defines “weapon” as “any pistol, revolver, or any weapon designed or intended to propel a missile of any kind, or any dirk, bowie knife, switchblade knife, ballistic knife, any other knife having a blade of two or more inches, straight-edge razor, razor blade, spring stick, knuckles, whether made from metal, thermoplastic, wood, or other similar material, blackjack, any bat, club, or other bludgeon-type weapon, or any flailing instrument consisting of two or more rigid parts connected in such a manner as to allow them to swing freely, which may be known as a nun chahka, nun chuck, nunchaku, shuriken, or fighting chain, or any disc, of whatever configuration, having at least two points or pointed blades which is designed to be thrown or propelled and which may be known as a throwing star or oriental dart, or any weapon of like kind.”

Timely Warnings/Clery Act Safety Alerts

In an effort to provide timely notice to the campus community in the event of a Clery Act crime that may pose a serious or ongoing threat to members of the community, GTPD issues "Clery Act Safety Alerts," also known as timely warnings. GTPD will generally issue these alerts for the following crimes: arson, aggravated assault, criminal homicide, robbery, burglary, sexual assaults, and hate crimes. GTPD works with Institute Communications to distribute campus-wide emails and post alerts online.

The purpose of these Clery Act Safety Alerts is to notify the campus community of the incident and to provide information that may enable community members to protect themselves from similar incidents. The Institute will issue Clery Act Safety Alerts whenever the following criteria are met: 1) a crime is committed; 2) the perpetrator has not been apprehended; and 3) there is a substantial risk to the physical safety of other members of the campus community because of the crime. Such crimes include, but are not limited to: 1) Clery Act crimes that are reported to any Campus Security Authority or the local police; or 2) crimes in which the Institute determines that the incident represents an ongoing threat to the campus community. If a robbery suspect has already been detained, the crime is not considered a threat to the community and no warning is sent. When issuing Clery Act Safety Alerts under the Clery Act, Georgia Tech withholds as confidential the names of victims. Clery Act Safety Alerts shall be decided on a case-by-case basis in light of all the facts surrounding the crime. Additionally, GTPD may, in some circumstances, issue Clery Act Safety Alerts when there is a pattern of crimes against persons or property.

The Georgia Tech Police Investigation Division commander or designee will consult with the Chief of Police to determine if an alert is warranted. If so, the Investigations Division commander will draft the Clery Act Safety Alert email for review by Institute Communications before distributing the email campus wide. Institute Communications may also publish the information on the Institute's main website and/or distribute it to local media outlets. For incidents involving off-campus crimes, GTPD may issue a Clery Act Safety Alert if the crime occurred in a location used and frequented by the campus community. Anyone with information warranting a timely warning should report the circumstances to GTPD by calling 404.894.2500, 404.894.GTPD, or 911 from a campus phone – or by visiting GTPD at 879 Hemphill Avenue NW.

Emergency Response and Evacuation Procedures

This policy statement summarizes the Institute's emergency response and evacuation procedures, including protocols for emergency notifications in those situations that represent a significant emergency or dangerous situation affecting the health and/or safety of the Georgia Tech community. This policy statement complies with the Emergency Notification requirements of the Jeanne Clery Disclosure of Campus Security Policy and Campus Crime Statistics Act, as amended by the Higher Education Opportunity Act of 2008 and applicable Department of Education regulations.

Emergency Response Plan

The GTPD's Office of Emergency Preparedness is responsible for the overall direction and planning for emergency situations on campus or those that occur in the local or regional area affecting campus. The Office of Emergency Preparedness has developed a comprehensive, all-hazards Emergency Operations Plan that outlines steps the Institute will take to mitigate, prepare for, respond to, and recover from a full range of hazards the campus community may face. A summary of the Institute's response procedures and the annual version of the plan is available at www.prepare.gatech.edu, which also includes detailed information about the Georgia Tech Emergency Notification System (GTENS), and how to enroll in the mass notification system to ensure receipt of emergency notices on Institute and personal phones.

To ensure that these plans remain current and actionable, the Institute will conduct an emergency management exercise, at least once yearly. These exercises may include tabletop drills, emergency operations center exercises, or full-scale emergency response exercises. The Office of Emergency Preparedness will notify the community of the exercise, remind the community of the Institute's publicly available information regarding emergency response procedures, and conduct after-action reviews of all emergency management exercises.

The GTPD's Office of Emergency Preparedness is responsible for the overall direction and planning for emergency situations on campus or those that occur in the local or regional area affecting campus.

Reviews of exercises and actual events include plan revisions to improve the readiness of the campus.

Emergency Notification System

Georgia Tech is committed to ensuring that the campus community receives timely, accurate, and useful information in the event of an emergency on campus or in the local area that poses a risk to the health and safety of campus community members. Georgia Tech will only initiate emergency notification in cases where an imminent threat to the campus community requires immediate action.

To support this commitment, Georgia Tech has invested in several multi-modal forms of communication that allow administrators to distribute notices in the event of a critical incident or dangerous situation.

1. Georgia Tech Emergency Notification System (GTENS)

GTENS uses the Blackboard Connect system to distribute emergency communications to the campus community through emails, text messages, phone calls, RSS feeds (digital signage, Institute webpage www.gatech.edu), and social media posts. The system includes preloaded templates for various situations, and the alerts can be sent to specific groups or the entire community. Recipient emails (students, faculty, and staff) are uploaded nightly to ensure that only those currently working at or attending Georgia Tech receive alerts. Georgia Tech loads only email addresses into the system automatically, as GTENS phone/text alerts are optional. To sign up for phone/text alerts, visit passport.gatech.edu. To minimize the overall load on the system, which improves the delivery time of any emergency message, parents and friends are not eligible to sign up for GTENS. Because all GTENS messages are automatically sent to Twitter, parents and friends are encouraged to follow @gtpdalerts if they would like to receive GTENS alerts.

2. Siren Warning System (SWS)

The Siren Warning System is a series of seven sirens distributed evenly throughout campus that are capable of sounding audible siren alerts followed by voice instructions. It is operated through a radio system, based in the GTPD Operations Center. Typically, the SWS is used to advise people to seek shelter inside a building for a variety of circumstances, most often for severe weather.

The Georgia Tech Siren Warning System (SWS) is tested at 12 p.m. on the first Wednesday of every month, unless inclement weather in the area would cause undue alarm and confusion. At the beginning of each semester, GTENS is tested live in addition to the standard SWS test.

3. Social Media

Although GTENS pushes emergency notification messages to the appropriate social media sites, the messages can also be used independently of GTENS. Both Twitter and Facebook are used to provide intermediate and awareness information, between major GTENS messages or prior to a severe weather event.

4. Cable TV

The Georgia Tech Cable Network (GTCN) system can display alerts on all channels through GTCN. This is operated through the Office of Information Technology Network Operations Center.

Confirming the Existence of a Significant Emergency or Dangerous Situation and Initiating the Emergency Notification System

The GTPD may become aware of a critical incident or other emergency situation that potentially affects the health and/or safety of the campus community. Generally, campus first responders become aware of these situations when they are reported to the GTPD Operations Center or when they are discovered during patrol or other assignments.

In situations where there is an imminent threat that requires the campus community to take immediate action, the GTPD Watch Commander may initiate emergency notification based upon his/her initial assessment. This may entail an on-scene size-up, reports from responding officers, video evidence, and calls and reports from the public. Note that in addition to the Patrol Watch Commander, the following persons may authorize use of emergency notification:

- » Chief of Police
- » Deputy Chief of Police
- » GTPD Captains
- » Director of Emergency Preparedness
- » Assistant Director of Emergency Preparedness
- » Communications Supervisor

Sending Emergency Notification

While the Watch Commander may authorize and direct the usage of the Emergency Notification System, GTPD's communications officers are responsible for sending the messages. The trained individuals and groups who may send alerts include:

- » GTENS
Primary: GTPD Communications Officers
Backup: Emergency Preparedness Staff
- Backup: GTPD Command Staff (Chief, Deputy Chief, Captains)
- Backup: GTPD Communications Supervisor
- » Siren Warning System
Primary: GTPD Operations Center Staff
- » Social Media (for supplementary information)
Primary: Emergency Preparedness Staff
- » Cable TV
Primary: The Office of Information Technology
Network Operations Center Staff

Determining the Appropriate Segment or Segments of the Campus Community to Receive an Emergency Notification

First responders on the scene of a critical incident or dangerous situation that poses an immediate threat to the health or safety of the campus community will assist those preparing the emergency notification in determining what segment or segments of the campus community should receive the notification. Generally, campus community members in the immediate area of the dangerous situation (i.e., the building, adjacent buildings, or surrounding area) will receive the emergency notification first. Subsequent notifications to a wider group of community members may be sent. Additionally, applicable messages about the dangerous condition will be posted on the Georgia Tech homepage to ensure the rest of the campus is aware of the situation and of the steps that should be taken to maintain personal and campus safety. If the emergency affects a significant portion of or the entire campus, the notification will be sent to the entire campus community.

Determining the Contents of the Emergency Notification

First responders on the scene of a critical incident or dangerous situation that poses an immediate threat to the health or safety of the campus community will assist the emergency notification requester, approver, and sender to determine the contents of the notification. The goal is to ensure that individuals are aware of the situation and that they know the steps to take to safeguard their personal and community safety.

Disseminating Emergency Information to the Larger Community

Because all GTENS messages are automatically sent to Twitter, parents are encouraged to follow @gtpdalerts if they would like to receive GTENS alerts.

If a critical incident or dangerous situation poses an immediate threat to the health or safety of the off-campus community, the on-duty GTPD Watch Commander will request that the GTPD Communications Officer notify the Atlanta 911 Communications Center.

Security of and Access to Institute Facilities

Georgia Tech Facilities Management maintains Institute buildings and grounds with a concern for safety and security. Its staff regularly inspects the campus, evaluates lighting, and makes repairs to improve safety and security. Other departments, including GTPD, assist Facilities by reporting potential safety and security hazards.

The Georgia Tech Security Card Access System (SCAS) is a campus-wide system that enables students, faculty, and staff to use their BuzzCard to access various buildings on campus. Individual BuzzCards are programmed to allow the holder access only to those buildings he or she is authorized to enter. As such, the SCAS enhances building security by limiting access to only those students, faculty, or staff who need to access a specific building, including residence halls. More information about the Georgia Tech SCAS is available at www.buzzcard.gatech.edu.

Living on Campus

Georgia Tech encourages students who do not reside with their parents or families to live in the residence halls. The Department of Housing supervises the assignment of rooms for single and married students. For a complete guide containing information about housing facilities and services, costs, priorities, policies, and residence hall safety, contact Housing at 404.894.2470, or visit housing.gatech.edu.

Access to Residence Halls

Exterior doors of the residence halls are locked 24 hours a day. A resident accesses his or her assigned building with his or her student BuzzCard, and accesses his or her individual room with a key. All visitors must be escorted by residents. In the event of a lost key, the student's room locks are re-keyed.

Staff Training

All Residence Life staff members undergo thorough training in enforcing residence hall security policies. As part of their responsibility as residence hall security enforcers, all Residence Life staff members participate in lectures and seminars associated with campus safety and security.

Living in Off-Campus Housing, Fraternities, and Sororities

Neither the Department of Housing nor the Institute provides supervision for off-campus housing. Sororities and fraternities are responsible for educating their members on safety and security in their houses and on campus. The GTPD provides crime prevention instruction when requested.

The Security Card Access System enhances building security by limiting access to students, faculty, and staff who need to access a specific building.

Sexual Assault, Dating or Domestic Violence, and Stalking Prevention and Response

Policies and Definitions Regarding Sexual Assault, Dating or Domestic Violence, and Stalking

The University System of Georgia's (USG) Sexual Misconduct Policy applies to all members of the USG community, including Georgia Tech. Georgia Tech's sexual misconduct policy adopts and incorporates the USG policy. Among other things, the policies contain definitions of consent, nonconsensual sexual contact, dating violence, domestic violence, stalking, and other violations as listed below. You can read the USG policy at www.usg.edu/policymanual/section6/C2655 and Georgia Tech's policy at policylibrary.gatech.edu/student-life/student-sexual-misconduct.

Consent: Words or actions that show a knowing and voluntary willingness to engage in mutually agreed-upon sexual activity. Consent cannot be gained by force, intimidation, or coercion; by ignoring or acting in spite of objections of another; or by taking advantage of the incapacitation of another where the respondent knows or reasonably should have known of such incapacitation. Minors under the age of 16 cannot legally consent under Georgia law.

Consent is also absent when the activity in question exceeds the scope of consent previously given. Past consent does not imply present or future consent. Silence or an absence of resistance does not imply consent. Consent can be withdrawn at any time by either party by using clear words or actions.

Dating Violence: Violence committed by a person who is or has been in a social relationship of a romantic or intimate nature with the alleged victim. Dating violence includes, but is not limited to, sexual or physical abuse or the threat of such abuse. Dating violence does not include acts covered under the definition of domestic violence.

Domestic Violence: Violence committed by a current or former spouse or intimate partner of the alleged victim; by a person with whom the alleged victim shares a child in common; by a person who is cohabitating with, or has cohabitated with, the victim as a spouse or intimate partner; or by a person similarly situated to a spouse of the alleged victim.

Nonconsensual Sexual Contact: Any physical contact with another person of a sexual nature without the person's consent. It includes but is not limited to touching (or penetrating) a person's intimate parts (such as genitalia, groin, breasts, or buttocks); touching (or penetrating) a person with one's own intimate parts; or forcing a person to touch his or her own or another person's intimate parts.

Sexual Assault: An umbrella term referring to a range of nonconsensual sexual contact, which can occur in many forms, including but not limited to rape and sexual battery.

Sexual Exploitation: Taking nonconsensual or abusive sexual advantage of another for one's own advantage or benefit, or for the benefit or advantage of anyone other than the one being exploited.

Examples of sexual exploitation may include, but are not limited to, the following:

- » Invasion of sexual privacy
- » Prostituting another individual
- » Nonconsensual photos, video, or audio of sexual activity
- » Nonconsensual distribution of photo, video, or audio of sexual activity, even if the sexual activity was consensual
- » Intentional observation of nonconsenting individuals who are partially undressed, naked, or engaged in sexual acts
- » Knowingly transmitting an STD or HIV to another individual through sexual activity
- » Intentionally and inappropriately exposing one's breasts, buttocks, groin, or genitals in nonconsensual circumstances
- » Sexually based bullying

Sexual Harassment: Unwelcome verbal, nonverbal, or physical conduct, based on sex or on gender stereotypes, that is implicitly or explicitly a term or condition of employment or status in a course, program, or activity; is a basis for employment or educational decisions; or is sufficiently severe, persistent, or pervasive to interfere with one's work or educational performance creating an intimidating, hostile, or offensive work or learning environment, or interfering with or limiting one's ability to participate in or to benefit from an institutional program or activity.

Sexual Misconduct: Includes, but is not limited to, such unwanted behavior as dating violence, domestic violence, nonconsensual sexual contact, sexual exploitation, sexual harassment, and stalking.

Stalking: Engaging in a course of conduct directed at a specific person that would cause a reasonable person to fear for his or her safety or the safety of others or suffer substantial emotional distress. Course of conduct means two or more acts, including but not limited to those in which the stalker directly, indirectly, or through third parties, by any action, method, device, or means, follows, monitors, observes, surveils, threatens, or communicates to or about a person, or interferes with a person's property. Reasonable person means a person under similar circumstances and with similar identities to the victim. Substantial emotional distress means significant mental suffering or anguish that may, but does not necessarily, require medical or other professional treatment or counseling.

Sexual Harassment, Sexual Assault, Dating or Domestic Violence, and Stalking Prevention and Response

Georgia Tech is actively engaged in preventing and responding to sexual harassment, sexual assault, dating and domestic violence, and stalking. These crimes are a violation of the Student Code of Conduct, Institute policy, and Georgia law and are not tolerated on our campus.

VOICE, Georgia Tech's sexual and relationship violence prevention and victim-survivor support initiative, is a campus-wide program founded on the premise that everyone has the right to live and learn at Georgia Tech, free of violence or the threat of violence. This initiative seeks to create a campus culture that promotes respect, communication, and equity among the Georgia Tech community. The VOICE initiative is led by staff in Health Initiatives and involves students, faculty, and staff from units across the campus, including the GTPD, the Women's Resource Center, Stamps Health Services, the Department of Housing, Residence Life, Greek Affairs, the Counseling Center, the Division of Student Life, Legal Affairs, the Student Government Association, the Athletic Association, and others. More information can be found at www.voice.gatech.edu.

Facts about Sexual Assault, Dating or Domestic Violence, and Stalking

- » Most victims of sexual assault are on a first-name basis with the perpetrator (most commonly a friend, classmate, or partner). On college campuses, only about 10 percent of sexual assaults are committed by a stranger.
- » Consent for sexual activity is the presence of a YES, not the absence of a NO. Sexual assault is defined as the perpetrator's failure to get consent, and does not require a victim to have physically resisted. If you aren't sure if your partner is giving consent, ask in clear terms.
- » Sexual violence, including sexual assault, dating or domestic violence, and stalking, is most commonly perpetrated by men. However, the majority of men are not perpetrators, and people of all genders and sexual orientations can be victimized. More importantly, no matter what your gender is, you can take an active role in preventing sexual violence by always seeking clear consent, speaking up or intervening when you see a dangerous situation, and learning more about how to support a victim-survivor.
- » Alcohol is involved in the majority of cases of sexual assault on college campuses. In fact, sexual assaults often occur when alcohol is used coercively to incapacitate the victim. Know your limits and respect others' limits when it comes to alcohol. No matter your gender, if you are initiating sexual activity, you are responsible for seeking and receiving clear consent. If someone is incapacitated by alcohol or drugs, they cannot give consent.
- » Dating or domestic abuse is not always physical, and there are often warning signs of abuse that can escalate to physical violence. Warning signs of an abusive relationship may include: threats, extreme jealousy or possessiveness, continuous insults or name-calling, and/or attempts to isolate the victim from family or friends. If you see warning signs in your relationship or that of a friend, seek immediate support and consider creating a safety plan. VOICE has confidential staff who can help.

- » Stalking can take many forms and is not always committed by a stranger. In fact, former dating partners or ex-partners often stalk after the relationship has ended. Stalking takes many forms and may take place in person, online, or via social media.

Strategies for Preventing Perpetration

Everyone has the right to have boundaries in a relationship, sexual or otherwise. Understand and respect your partner's limits.

- » Know your own sexual limits.
- » Men who use callous sexual language are more likely to be perpetrators of sexual assault. When you hear someone talking about women or sex in a derogatory way, speak up and call out this behavior.
- » Learn more about how different people communicate about sexual activity. A lack of communication or mixed signals is never an excuse for committing sexual assault.
- » Seek information to learn more about what survivors of sexual violence go through and how you can support them.
- » No matter your gender, if you are initiating sexual activity, you are responsible for seeking and receiving clear consent. People who are incapacitated by alcohol or drugs cannot give consent.

Bystander Intervention

Intervening can be difficult, but every person on campus, whether a student, staff, or faculty member, has a role in preventing violence

Georgia Tech is actively engaged in preventing and responding to sexual assault, dating or domestic violence, and stalking.

or responding to it before, during, or after it happens. It can be as simple as: "See Something? Say Something!"

- » Sexual violence occurs when a culture tolerates these behaviors, and it starts with rape jokes or sexist language. If you hear it, remember you don't have to laugh or participate.
- » If you witness a potentially sexually violent situation, step in. Intervening can be direct or indirect; the important thing is that you do something. If you don't feel comfortable addressing the potential perpetrator directly, consider causing a distraction or getting someone else to help you. Even if you don't know the people involved, you can still help. If it is happening to a member of the Georgia Tech community, it's your business.
- » Being an active bystander might mean helping after you have learned an assault has occurred. Learn more about options available to victims through VOICE, and offer help and support if someone you know experiences any form of sexual violence. Believe the survivor and be supportive of their choices.

What Consent Means

Please refer to the previous section called "Policies and Definitions Regarding Sexual Assault, Dating or Domestic Violence, and Stalking" for the definition of consent. Below, you can find additional information to help you understand what consent means.

- » Consent begins when individuals decide together to do the same thing, at the same time, in the same way, with each other. It is the responsibility of the initiator, or the person who wants to engage in the specific sexual activity, to make sure they have consent from their partner(s).
- » Consent to one form of sexual activity does not imply consent to any other form of sexual activity.
- » The initiator must obtain consent at every stage of sexual interaction.

- » Consent will exist when both of these standards are met:
  - A reasonable person would consider the words or actions of the parties to have manifested an agreement between them to do the same thing, in the same way, at the same time, with one another; and
  - The person believed in good faith that the words or actions of the parties have manifested an agreement between them to do the same thing, in the same way, at the same time, with one another.
- » Consent may never be given by incapacitated persons.
  - Incapacitation refers to the physical and/or mental inability to make informed, rational judgments. It can result from mental disability, sleep, involuntary physical restraint, status as a minor under the age of 16, or from intentional or unintentional taking of alcohol and/or other drugs. Whether someone is incapacitated is to be judged from the perspective of an objectively reasonable person.

Primary Prevention Programs and Awareness Campaigns

The VOICE initiative takes a comprehensive approach to sexual violence prevention and awareness programming on the Georgia Tech campus. Yearly programming includes a VOICE training series, awareness events and campaigns, guest speakers, classroom and student organization presentations, and workshops for staff and faculty. All new students will receive mandatory training on the identification and prevention of sexual misconduct, including sexual assault, stalking, sexual harassment, and dating violence.

Each year, April is recognized nationally as Sexual Assault Awareness Month. VOICE, along with various campus partners such as the Women's Resource Center and PAUSE (People Against Unwanted Sexual Experiences), organizes several awareness campaigns each year. These include Take Back the Night, a survivor speak-out and candlelight vigil, and Teal Ribbon Day, when students, faculty, and staff wear a teal ribbon to show their support for survivors of sexual violence.

Students

VOICE's sexual violence prevention programs contain: definitions of consent, sexual assault, dating/domestic violence, and stalking; myths related to sexual violence on campus; information on the Georgia Tech Student Sexual Misconduct Policy; safe and positive options for bystander intervention; sexual violence prevention strategies; and ways to support a survivor. VOICE serves thousands of students each year through its trainings, speakers, and awareness campaigns.

All first-year students receive required education related to sexual violence prevention in two ways. All students attending FASET orientation throughout the summer attend a mandatory session called Health, Respect, and Community Responsibility, which covers resources to empower students to make healthy decisions, define consent, and understand sexual violence and every student's responsibility to be part of the solution. Additionally, Georgia Tech requires incoming first-year and transfer students to complete AlcoholEdu and Sexual Assault Prevention for Undergraduates as part of comprehensive health programming. All first-year graduate students are expected to complete the online Sexual Assault Prevention for Graduate Students course. For this initiative, Georgia Tech has partnered with EverFi, whose mission is to help students in higher education institutions across the country address alcohol abuse prevention and sexual violence awareness.

Whether students drink or not, AlcoholEdu will empower students to make well-informed decisions about alcohol and help them better cope with the drinking behavior of their peers. The Sexual Assault Prevention for Undergraduates and Graduate Student programs address sexual assault, relationship violence, consent, bystander intervention, and stalking.

Beyond this foundation of education that all incoming students receive, VOICE offers various trainings to the community each semester:

- » VOICE peer educator or staff-facilitated workshops for student groups or residence halls on topics such as bystander intervention, consent, healthy relationships, and how to support survivors
- » "Don't Stand By, Stand Up" Bystander Intervention Training (open to all students, facilitated by student peer educators)
- » Greeks Against Violence Trainings (open to students in the Greek community)
- » Guest lectures in required health classes (APPH 1040) or other academic courses

Beyond these trainings, students can learn more and get involved with VOICE in a number of ways:

- » Meet with a health educator or VOICE advocate in Health Initiatives to learn more about this topic, ways to prevent violence, how to support survivors, and how to get involved in campus efforts around these issues.
- » Serve on the Sexual Violence Prevention Alliance, or SGA Joint Sexual Violence Advisory Committee, participate in the VOICE Peer Education Program, or join PAUSE, a student organization focused on sexual violence awareness and prevention.
- » Request a presentation by VOICE professional staff or student peer educators for a residence hall, chapter, or student organization on topics such as:
  - Healthy relationships
  - Consent
  - Bystander intervention
  - Sexual violence response/supporting survivors
- » Attend speaker events and other programs and activities focused on topics related to sexual and relationship violence.

Visit healthinitiatives.gatech.edu/voice to learn more about Georgia Tech's sexual violence prevention and response activities, or email voice@gatech.edu for more information or to get involved.

Faculty and Staff

Pursuant to its Policy of Non-Discrimination and Affirmative Action, Anti-Harassment Policy, and Sexual Misconduct Policy, Georgia Tech prohibits its faculty and staff members from engaging in discriminatory conduct on the basis of gender, including sexual harassment and sexual misconduct. The University System of Georgia's (USG) Sexual Misconduct Policy applies to all members of the USG community, including Georgia Tech. Georgia Tech's sexual misconduct policy adopts and incorporates the USG policy. Among other things, the policies contain definitions of consent, nonconsensual sexual contact, dating violence, domestic violence, and stalking.

The USG policy is available at www.usg.edu/policymanual/section6/C2655, and Georgia Tech's policy is available at policylibrary.gatech.edu/student-life/student-sexual-misconduct.

Georgia Tech faculty and staff can actively foster and maintain a campus culture where sexual assault, sexual harassment, relationship violence, and stalking are not tolerated. Georgia Tech Human Resources has a facilitator-led course that engages participants to learn about and understand their role as responsible employees in addressing and reporting sexual misconduct. This course covers relevant procedures and resources to help prepare staff and faculty to respond effectively when they become aware of an incident at Georgia Tech. Participants are given opportunities to practice learned skills by using case studies and through active discussion. Georgia Tech faculty and staff can sign up for sessions through the Workplace Learning and Professional Development catalog or by visiting trains.gatech.edu. For any questions, please contact Rachel Watts at rachel.watts@ohr.gatech.edu.

Faculty and staff who would like to learn more about resources for sexual assault, dating or domestic violence, sexual harassment, and stalking can visit www.voice.gatech.edu or titleix.gatech.edu. Contact VOICE at voice@gatech.edu for information on upcoming events and training opportunities, which are available upon request for professional staff, student staff, academic classes, and organizations. VOICE's sexual violence prevention programs cover definitions of consent, sexual harassment, sexual assault, dating/domestic violence, and stalking; myths related to sexual violence on campus; information on the Georgia Tech Sexual Misconduct Policy; safe and positive options for bystander intervention; sexual violence prevention strategies; and ways to support a survivor. Faculty and staff are also welcome to serve on the Sexual Violence Prevention Alliance, a multidisciplinary committee that meets monthly to address campus programming and communication related to sexual violence prevention and response.

Crisis Response Services Available

The Georgia Tech campus and the Atlanta community have a wide range of services available to support and help survivors of sexual assault, dating or domestic violence, sexual harassment, and stalking. Regardless of where or when an offense occurred, if a Georgia Tech student or employee reports being a victim of sexual assault, dating or domestic violence, sexual harassment, or stalking, the victim is provided with a written explanation of their rights and options. More information about rights and options is available at the following websites:

titleix.gatech.edu/sites/default/files/documents/flyer.student\_sexual\_misconduct\_what\_you\_need\_to\_know.oct\_2017.pdf

policylibrary.gatech.edu/student-life/student-sexual-misconduct

Advocate Services

VOICE advocates in Health Initiatives are available 24 hours a day to support students. Advocates can assist victims of any gender in identifying resources to cope with the aftermath of sexual violence. They are available to accompany the victim to any police department, and/or the hospital to receive medical attention as needed. Other support includes help with counseling services and concerns with housing, safety, or academic performance. VOICE advocates can also talk to victims about their rights and reporting options. To reach a VOICE advocate during business hours (Monday-Friday, 8 a.m.- 5 p.m.), call 404.385.4451 or 404.385.4464. Nights, weekends, and holidays, call GTPD at 404.984.2500 and ask for the on-call advocate. You do not need to provide any information other than a phone number. Advocate offices are located in the Health Initiatives suite (second floor of Stamps Health Services, located at 740 Ferst Drive NW).

Options for Seeking Medical Attention

If an assault has occurred, seeking medical attention within the first five days is important for medical reasons, as well as for collecting evidence for a law enforcement investigation. Local rape crisis centers are available for medical and counseling assistance 24 hours a day. Call 404.616.4861 to contact the Grady Rape Crisis Center directly.

Although your first instinct after a sexual assault may be to bathe, it is very important that you do not bathe, wash, gargle, brush your hair, or change your clothes if you plan to have a rape kit examination conducted. Important evidence could be destroyed if you do so. If you do bathe, you are still encouraged to seek a forensic medical exam at a hospital or other facility, where evidence can still be collected. If possible, bring your changed clothes in a brown paper bag (not plastic) for evidence collection.

Stamps Health Services, including Women's Health, is available during office hours (Monday through Friday, 8 a.m.-5 p.m.) for assistance and follow-up care for Georgia Tech students. It does not conduct rape kit exams, however. An on-call VOICE advocate in Health Initiatives can be reached 24 hours a day by contacting the GTPD and asking to speak with the VOICE on-call advocate. Students do not have to disclose any details about the incident when calling, other than a phone number where an advocate can reach them.

The GTPD can also plan for medical attention and will transport victims in unmarked cars to the Grady Rape Crisis Center 24 hours a day. Victims may request that a friend or family member accompany them. Additionally, a VOICE advocate can accompany students to the hospital or talk about available resources. Victims have the option to seek medical attention without having a rape kit exam conducted. They may seek medical attention for injuries, screening for a sexually transmitted infection, emergency contraception, and pregnancy testing.

Georgia Tech faculty and staff members seeking medical attention are directed to local rape crisis centers, including the Grady Rape Crisis Center. If it is not possible to seek medical care within the five-day window, it is still important to seek medical attention as soon as possible.

Counseling Services for Students

In addition to the support provided by the VOICE advocates, the Georgia Tech Counseling Center provides mental health counseling and other services and is committed to assisting students who have experienced sexual violence of any form, including sexual assault, dating or domestic violence, sexual harassment, and stalking. The confidential services at the Counseling Center are free for enrolled students, and same-day appointments are available in emergencies. Making an appointment is best accomplished by appearing in person at the Counseling Center on the second floor of the Smithgall Student Services Building (Flag Building next to the Student Center). If you cannot physically appear or need to speak with the after-hours counselor, call the Counseling Center at 404.894.2575.

Other Local Counseling Services

You do not have to file a police report for counseling assistance. Aftercare in the form of counseling, advocacy, and follow-up is also available from local rape crisis centers or national hotlines such as RAINN (Rape, Abuse, and Incest National Network) or the National Domestic Violence Hotline.

Counseling Services for Faculty and Staff

The Employee Assistance Program (EAP) is available, at no cost, to all health care benefits-eligible employees and does not require employee registration to participate. EAP offers confidential counseling services that may assist employees in addressing any emotional or mental health concerns. These services include, but are not limited to, face-to-face counseling and referral for a full range of personal, family, and work concerns.

EAP services also include supervisory and management consultation on work/life situations that may impair the functioning of a team or departmental staff. EAP offers a wide range of other services, such as legal and financial consultation, child and elder care, adoption resources, academic resources, pet care, and daily living and concierge.

An employee's voluntary decision to seek assistance from the EAP will not be used as the basis for disciplinary action and will not be a defense against the imposition of disciplinary action where facts proving a violation of relevant policy are obtained outside of the EAP. Atlanta, GA 30303

Grady offers 24-hour medical treatment and crisis support for victims and their families, support during evidence collection, and ongoing support for victims (including accompanying victims to court and providing individual and

Reporting Options for Sexual Violence

For Georgia Tech students, faculty, and staff who experience sexual violence, including sexual assault, dating or domestic violence, stalking, or sexual harassment, there are several basic reporting options, depending on whether the victim wishes to file a confidential or anonymous report, pursue an Institute investigation, or seek a criminal investigation with the assistance of the GTPD. Reporting options are described in the University System of Georgia's (USG) sexual misconduct policy, on which Georgia Tech's sexual misconduct policy is based. Georgia Tech's policy is available at policylibrary.gatech.edu/student-life/student-sexual-misconduct. For more information, visit titleix.gatech.edu. When a report is made through one of these methods, the victim receives written notice of their rights and options, including, where appropriate, information about orders of protection, no-contact orders, and restraining orders. A victim also has the right to choose not to file any report. In that case, a student victim can still receive support services from VOICE in Health Initiatives, or the Counseling Center, and a faculty or staff member can still receive support services from the Employee Assistance Program. A listing of the resources available to victim-survivors is available at titleix.gatech.edu/content/title-ix-resources and healthinitiatives.gatech.edu/resources.

To file a confidential report

Student victims may file a confidential report with a VOICE advocate in Health Initiatives who can help a student navigate their options for any other report they would like to make. For incidents covered by the Clery Act, VOICE advocates share general information without identifying any parties involved, for campus safety statistics.

In addition to VOICE in Health Initiatives, confidential resources also include the Counseling Center, the Women's Resource Center, LGBTQIA Resource Center, and Stamps Health Services. Confidential resources who are also Campus Security Authorities (CSA) will collect general information for campus safety statistics, but will not refer the case to the Title IX coordinator.

By contrast, CSAs who are not confidential resources and are, instead, "Responsible Employees" under Georgia Tech's Sexual Misconduct Policy will refer the case to the Title IX coordinator for follow-up, in addition to collecting information for campus safety statistics. If someone reports an incident to a Responsible Employee on campus, the report cannot remain confidential. The Responsible Employee is obligated to inform the Title IX coordinator. If identifying information is provided, the Title IX coordinator will endeavor to use that information to investigate the matter. Examples of identifying information include, but are not limited to, name, email address, apartment or room number, job title (e.g., TA for a particular class), specific description.

Faculty and staff who experience or wish to report concerns of sexual violence may file a confidential report through EthicsPoint (a neutral third-party host) by completing an online form at www.ethicspoint.com or by calling 1.866.297.0224 and having EthicsPoint transcribe the information and send it to the Institute. General information is collected for campus safety statistics, and the case is referred for investigation – to the extent possible given the information provided.

To pursue a Title IX/Institute investigation

If the accused individual is a student, the victim may report the violation in writing or in person to the Title IX coordinator to begin the investigation.

To prepare for the official conduct process, students are encouraged to meet with a victim-survivor advocate in Health Initiatives prior to making the official report.

The advocate will share information with a student about their rights, explain the reporting and investigation process, and share additional resources. Visit www.voice.gatech.edu for contact information for victim-survivor advocates. Victims are encouraged to report as soon as possible, and the Title IX coordinator will review all complaints.

Although the goal is to limit the number of individuals who may learn about an allegation or investigation of misconduct, Georgia Tech cannot guarantee confidentiality once a complaint has been made.

To pursue an Office of Human Resources investigation

If the accused individual is a faculty or staff member, the victim may file a report with Georgia Tech Human Resources (GTHR) or the Title IX coordinator (or a deputy coordinator).

They may also file a report through EthicsPoint

(a neutral third-party host) by completing an online form at www.ethicspoint.com or by calling 1.866.294.5565 and having EthicsPoint transcribe the information and send it to the Institute. General information is collected for campus safety statistics, and the case is referred to the Institute’s Title IX coordinator for investigation through that office or through GTHR – to the extent possible given the information provided.

To pursue a criminal investigation

All victims may file a report with the GTPD or local police for a criminal investigation, which may be sought in conjunction with an Institute investigation. Georgia Tech will honor all protection and no-contact orders issued by a criminal court as directed by law.

Reports to the GTPD will be shared with the Division of Student Life and the Title IX coordinator, and will be investigated for violation of policy or other violations of the Sexual Misconduct Policy.

A VOICE advocate can assist students with reporting to the GTPD or local police. Visit www.voice.gatech.edu for advocates’ contact information.

Sexual Misconduct Disciplinary Procedures

Students

All investigations concerning sexual violence by a Georgia Tech student will be prompt, fair, and impartial. The standard of proof utilized in these cases is preponderance of the evidence. Preponderance of the evidence, as an evidentiary standard, means that it is more likely than not that the alleged violation of policy occurred. All investigation, resolution, and appeal processes involving accused students are carried out by those who have received annual training on issues related to sexual assault, sexual harassment, dating or domestic violence, and stalking, and how to conduct a sexual misconduct investigation, resolution, and appeal process that protects the safety of victims, maintains fairness/impartiality for accused individuals, and promotes student accountability.

Potential violations or individuals reported to the Institute will be investigated by the Title IX coordinator according to the procedures in the Sexual Misconduct Policy, the University System of Georgia sexual misconduct policy, and student conduct proceedings. Due process rights of the victim and the accused individual will also be observed. If it is determined that a violation of policy has occurred, disciplinary action may be taken, up to and including the expulsion of the offender. The severity of any disciplinary action will depend on the frequency or severity of the offense and the history of past misconduct by the accused. Both parties are notified of the outcome of any disciplinary proceeding.

For more information, see the Sexual Misconduct Policy at policylibrary.gatech.edu/student-life/student-sexual-misconduct.

No-Contact Order

Upon receipt of a report of student sexual misconduct from the Title IX coordinator, the Office of Student Integrity may issue a no-contact order between the parties involved in the case. The no-contact order prohibits communication between/among the parties, including but not limited to: contact by telephone, email, handwritten notes, instant messaging, text messaging, online postings/message boards, through a third person, or in person. This includes any email or message accounts affiliated with the parties' identities. If any party violates the no-contact order, the Office of Student Integrity may pursue additional disciplinary action.

In certain circumstances, the Dean of Students may also impose an interim suspension in accordance with the Student Code of Conduct.

Student Rights

The following rights apply to student complainants and respondents:

- » To have any and all acts of sexual misconduct handled with seriousness, dignity, and respect.
- » To receive information outlining the student procedures regarding sexual misconduct.
- » To receive information about options to report sexual misconduct (e.g., campus/local police, the Title IX coordinator, and confidential resources) and to receive assistance from an advocate if requested.
- » To receive a prompt, fair, and impartial investigation and resolution.
- » To have the investigation, resolution, and appeal process be carried out by those who have received annual training on issues related to sexual assault, sexual harassment, dating or domestic violence, and stalking, and on how to conduct a sexual misconduct investigation, resolution, and appeal process that protects the safety of victims, maintains fairness/impartiality for accused individuals, and promotes student accountability.
- » To be informed of the date and location of any meetings involved in the investigation and resolution process.
- » To seek information or updates from the office coordinating the investigation (Title IX Office) or the hearing (Office of Student Integrity) at any point throughout the investigation and resolution process.
- » To have an advisor of one's choice present during any meetings and proceedings involved in the investigation and resolution process.
- » To be informed in writing of any policies alleged to have been violated in association with the incident.

- » To have the opportunity to provide information regarding their involvement in the allegation.
- » To be informed of the outcome in writing of any campus disciplinary proceeding.
- » To be notified of options and offered assistance in changing academic, living, transportation, and working situations, if requested – as long as the changes are reasonably available. VOICE advocates in Health Initiatives will work with students requesting these services.
- » To receive support services (e.g., campus counseling, medical assistance).
- » To not have mediation imposed, without consent, as a resolution process.
- » To be informed in writing of the right to appeal the outcome in accordance with the applicable provisions of the Sexual Misconduct Policy.
- » To be informed in writing of any change to the outcome due to appeal, and when the outcome becomes final.

Note: Compliance with these provisions does not constitute a violation of section 444 of the General Education Provisions Act (20 U.S.C. 1232g), commonly known as the Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act of 1974 (FERPA).

Faculty and Staff

All investigations concerning sexual misconduct by a Georgia Tech faculty or staff member will be coordinated by Georgia Tech Human Resources. The investigations will be prompt, fair, and impartial, and shall be conducted by officials who receive annual training on issues related to sexual harassment, sexual assault, dating or domestic violence, and stalking, and on how to conduct a sexual misconduct investigation process that protects the safety of victims, maintains fairness/impartiality for accused individuals, and promotes employee accountability.

Faculty or staff investigation procedures will determine findings of fact using the preponderance of the evidence standard, which means that it is more likely than not that a violation of Institute policy has occurred. If it is determined that a violation of policy has occurred, disciplinary action may be taken, up to and including termination of employment. The severity of any disciplinary action will depend on the frequency or severity of the offense and the history of past misconduct by the employee.

Confidentiality

Although the goal is to limit the number of individuals who may learn about an allegation or investigation of sexual misconduct, Georgia Tech cannot guarantee confidentiality in all cases. Georgia Tech, however, will make reasonable and appropriate efforts to preserve the victim's and the accused individual's privacy and to protect the confidentiality of information. To the extent permissible by law, Georgia Tech shall take reasonable steps to avoid inclusion of identifying information about a victim or accused individual in publicly available records. Access to disciplinary records is governed by applicable state and federal laws, including but not limited to FERPA.

Retaliation

Georgia Tech does not tolerate retaliation against anyone who makes a complaint of sexual misconduct, whether reported to Georgia Tech or an external agency, or against anyone who exercises their rights or responsibilities under Georgia Tech's policies. If any party involved in a sexual misconduct incident or conduct process retaliates in any way, they may be subject to additional disciplinary action. For more information, see the Georgia Tech Anti-Harassment Policy at www.policylibrary.gatech.edu/employment/anti-harassment-policy, and the University System of Georgia Sexual Misconduct policy at www.usg.edu/policymanual/section6/C2655.

Sex Offender Registry

It also requires registered sex offenders to provide notice of their enrollment or employment at any institution of higher learning in the state where they reside. Members of the campus community may access the Georgia Sex Offender Registry maintained by the Georgia Bureau of Investigation at gbi.georgia.gov/georgia-sex-offender-registry.

Missing Persons

Missing Student Policy

If there is reason to believe that a student living in on-campus housing has been missing (i.e., when his or her whereabouts are unknown and unexplainable for a period of time regarded as highly unusual or suspicious in consideration of the person's usual behavior patterns, routines, or plans), the person who realizes that the student is missing must contact one of the following: the GTPD, the Department of Housing, or the Office of the Vice President for Student Life and Dean of Students. Any campus official who is aware that a student living on campus has been, or may have been, missing must immediately notify the GTPD either in person or by phone at 404.894.2500 or 404.894.GTPD.

There is no waiting period to report a missing person to the GTPD.

There is no waiting period to report any missing person to the GTPD. Upon notification that a person is or may be missing, the GTPD will give full consideration and attention to the report, including careful recording of factual circumstances surrounding the disappearance and identifying those cases in which an individual may be in jeopardy. The GTPD will exercise particular care in instances involving individuals who may be mentally or physically impaired, missing or unidentified children, and others who are insufficiently prepared to take care of themselves. If it is determined that a student is, in fact, missing, the GTPD will, as soon as possible and practical, notify the appropriate campus administrators (e.g., Dean of Students, Director of Housing, etc.) and additional law enforcement agencies as appropriate.

Any student living in on-campus housing is encouraged to identify a confidential contact person or persons who will be notified by Georgia Tech or by the Office of the Vice President for Student Life and Dean of Students if the student is determined to be missing. If the student is under the age of 18, and not emancipated, the Dean of Students will notify the student's custodial parent or legal guardian and the confidential contact person as soon as possible after the student is determined to be missing. A student who wishes to identify a confidential contact can do so through OSCAR under the "Personal Information" menu. A student may view and update the "Housing Missing Person Contact" at any time.

All contact information collected for the purpose of locating missing students shall remain confidential, will be used only for the purpose specified herein, and will only be disclosed to GTPD or appropriate officials of the Office of the Vice President for Student Life and Dean of Students as needed within the realm of a missing student investigation.

For more information, see the Missing Student Notification Policy at policies.gatech.edu/student-affairs/missing-student-notification-policy.

Any use of alcoholic beverages on campus must follow Georgia law prohibiting the use of alcohol by persons under the age of 21. Students of legal drinking age in Georgia may possess and consume alcoholic beverages in their private residences.

At any campus function for students where alcohol is served, campus officials must give approval and certain provisions must be made. Each person is legally responsible for his or her actions in all mental and physical conditions, including those induced by alcoholic beverages.

Illegal Drugs

Georgia Tech policies prohibit the possession or use, without a valid prescription, of any substance currently classified as a dangerous drug by the Georgia Controlled Substance Act. Any individual breaking the law will be subject to disciplinary action and arrest.

Substance Abuse Education

Georgia Tech is committed to maintaining a campus free of drug and alcohol abuse and assisting all employees and students in finding ways to address such problems. Educational programs targeting these issues are supported and encouraged through a variety of departments. Anyone aware of substance abuse problems with roommates, friends, or coworkers

Preparing the Annual Safety and Security Report Crime Statistics

Statistics for the most recent three-year calendar period are listed below. GTPD Incident Reports are subject to Georgia's Uniform Crime Reporting Program and the Georgia Open Records Act. Confidentiality is limited to that provided by law. This Annual Safety and Security Report has been prepared by GTPD in cooperation with the Atlanta Police Department, Office of Student Integrity, Women's Resource Center, Health Initiatives, Georgia Tech Human Resources, Department of Housing and Residence Life, and the Athletics Association. Each entity provides updated information about its educational efforts and programs to meet compliance requirements.

Disciplinary referrals for violations of the Student Code of Conduct, which may include some criminal offenses specified for this report, are sometimes made directly to the Division of Student Life by individuals or campus organizations other than the GTPD.

Email notification of the availability of the Annual Safety and Security Report is sent electronically to faculty, staff, and students by the October 1 deadline. Hard copies of the report may be printed from the GTPD website or picked up directly from GTPD. The report is located at www.police.gatech.edu/crimeinfo/safetyreport.

Annual Disclosure of Crime Statistics

The Jeanne Clery Disclosure of Campus Security Policy and Campus Crime Statistics Act (20 USC § 1092(f)) requires colleges and universities across the United States to disclose information about crime on and around their campuses. A memorandum of understanding between GTPD and the Atlanta Police Department ensures that incidents reported directly to Atlanta police involving Clery-reportable crimes are brought to the attention of GTPD.

GTPD collects the crime statistics disclosed in the charts below through a number of methods. Police dispatchers and officers enter all reports of crime incidents made directly to GTPD through an integrated computer-aided dispatch system/records management system. After an officer enters the report in the system, a department administrator reviews the report to ensure it is appropriately classified in the correct crime category. GTPD periodically examines the data to ensure that all reported crimes are recorded in accordance with the crime definitions outlined in the FBI Uniform Crime Reporting Handbook and the FBI National Incident-Based Reporting System Handbook.

The statistics in this report include crimes that are reported to various Campus Security Authorities in addition to the crime data maintained by GTPD. The statistics reported here generally reflect the number of criminal incidents as reported to the various authorities. The statistics reported for the sub-categories on liquor laws, drug laws, and weapons offenses represent the number of people arrested or referred to campus judicial authorities for respective violations, not the number of offenses documented.
